The event will also see the publication of Subject Promotional Videos showcasing a sample of "the best that has been said, thought and done" in each subject area.

Mr Snelson and the Governors are pleased to invite all interested students, parents/carers and members of The County High School Leftwich community to this extra special online event. A recording of Mr Snelson's presentation will be made available following the live event.

Hear from Mr Snelson how The County High School Leftwich is:

- Achieving Excellence in academic results
- Achieving Excellence in curriculum provision and delivery
- Achieving Excellence in pastoral care and support
- Achieving Excellence in enrichment provision

In 2019 students at The County High School Leftwich achieved progress that put the school in the top 2% of schools nationally.

Our exceptional 2020 students achieved progress in line with previous year's performance. Students have achieved progress that is described by the Department for Education as at least ABOVE AVERAGE for the last 4 years and in 2016 and 2019 students achieved progress described as WELL ABOVE AVERAGE.

"Pupils display a thirst for learning"* and "The behaviour of pupils is outstanding" 'OFSTED'
